Singer

Brief Bio:

Hello! My name is Tim Sutton. I am a performing singer and guitar player in Ohio. I started playing guitar when I was 14 years old. My first guitar was acoustic, next was an electric guitar with amps, mics, and the whole sha-bang! I have taken lessons from three different instructors of various musical interests and styles. By the time I was 19, I started incorporating my voice into playing guitar and developing my music setlist. By age 20, I began performing at local bars and restaurants around the Logan County area. My personal interest in music lies deep within the blues genre. However, I also love to play jazz music! My influences include John Mayer, Eric Clapton, B.B. King, Jason Mraz, Jimi Hendrix, Bob Dylan, Johnny Cash, and many other great names in music. After 12 years of playing and performing in front of crowds, I still have yet to scratch the surface of my true potential but I keep on rockin'!
